

Arthur E. Woznicki
Author: *It's the Principal of the Thing

- Bachelors Degree: Fordham University; Masters Degree: Central Connecticut State University; Administrative Certificate: University of Connecticut.
- Advertising production in NYC following graduation from Fordham
- United States Army veteran
- Classroom teacher: 5 years: 4 years in Watertown, CT & 1 year at King Philip, West Hartford Public Schools (WHPS).
- Foreign Language teacher: (French): 1 year West Hartford
- Teacher Coordinator: Morley School: 2 years: West Hartford
- Principal: Whitman School, West Hartford: 4 years
- West Hartford Public School Central Administrator: Director of K-12 instruction including academic departments and the departments of arts, physical education, foreign language, gifted and continuing education: 17 years.
- Supervised and evaluated all West Hartford principals and department heads K-12.
- Conducted workshops for principals in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Kentucky and Maryland.
- Public School Administrative Consultant (10 years) and Capitol Region Education Council (CREC) Consultant (2 years).
- Married, with two children and three granddaughters.

NOTE: The West Hartford Public School System is a nationally recognized and renown Lighthouse School District.